THE FEAST OF LIGHTS

THE lights on the tree are said to be of Jewish origin. In the month of Kislev, of the Jewish year, corresponding nearly to our December, and the twenty-fifth day, Jews celebrated the feast of dedication of their temple. It had been dedicated on that day by Antiochus. It was dedicated by Judas Maccabeus, and, according to Jewish legend, sufficient oil was found in the temple to last for the seven-branched candelabrum for eight days, and it would have taken eight days to prepare new oil. Accordingly the Jews were wont on the twenty-fifth day of Kislev in every house to light a candle, on the next day two, and on the eighth and last day of the feast, eight candles twinkled in every house.
It is not very easy to fix the exact date of the Nativity, but it fell most probably on the last day of Kislev, when every Jewish house in Bethlehem and Jerusalem was twinkling with lights. It is worthy of note that the German name for Christmas is Weihnacht (the night of dedication), as though it were associated with this feast. The Greeks also call Christmas the feast of lights, the name given to the dedication festival, Chanukah, by the Jews.

WHY THE CHRISTMAS KISSES?

Osulation, Allowed by Custom, Celebrates One of Most Charming Events in Tradition.

WHY should men kiss girls who stand under mistletoe?
Because they like it and because custom allows it. Every kiss under the mistletoe, however, is a kiss which celebrates one of the most charming events in Christmas tradition.

The romance goes back to the days of the gods of Scandinavia, when Bal-dur the Beautiful was shot by Locke, the Spirit of Evil, with an arrow of mistletoe. But his mother, Venus of the North, restored him to life by saluting with kisses all who passed beneath a branch held aloft in her hand.

Thus it became an emblem of love and happy celebration. Ancient races held the plant in great veneration, particularly the Druids, who went in procession into the forests to collect it.

After New Year's day it was distributed among the people as a sacred and holy plant. If any part of the mistletoe touched the ground it was regarded as an omen of impending evil.

A FULL STOCKING.

Hock—Santa Claus apparently has gifts to please everybody.
Rock—Yes. It seems that there is nothing he doesn't keep in stock. He brought one woman of my acquaintance a divorce with alimony and the custody of the poodle."

30,000 PERSONS PETITION HARDING TO FREE DEBS

Thirty thousand citizens of Terre Haute, Ind., today petitioned President Harding to make them a Christmas present of their "fellow townsman," Eugene V. Debs, Socialist leader, who is now serving a term in the Federal Prison at Atlanta, Ga., for violation of the espionage act.

Mayor Hunter heads the list of signers. Nearly all of the business and professional men of the city signed the petition.

To all of which one can but add, if the citizens of Terre Haute want Debs they must be the kind of people that want Debs:

ACT QUICKLY

Do the right thing at the right time.

Act quickly in time of danger.

In time of kidney danger, Doan's Kidney Pills are most effective.

Plenty of Keytesville evidence of their worth. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. Wm. Gribble says: "My back was lame and sore. Every time I moved or turned my back pained and I surely was in misery. I had dizzy spells and my sight became blurred.
I often saw specks in front of my eyes. My kidneys acted irregularly and I was so tired and weak I couldn't go on with my work. I heard how Doan's Kidney Pills were helping others so I tried them. A few boxes, which I got at Richardson's Drug Store, cured me."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Gribble had. Foster-Milburn
